Charter School Legal Status

The legally designated name under Idaho Statutory Code of this chartered school is White Pine Charter School.

White Pine Charter School Board shall be maintained, developed and operated by its locally-elected Board of Directors. Such authority as is required to carry out its responsibilities is derived from the Idaho constitution, its statutory laws governing the establishment and provision of the state's system of public education, and pursuant administrative rules as promulgated by the State Board of Education. In the absence of statutes or regulations, the local board of directors retains the authority to autonomously establish policy and duties to advance the philosophy, mission, and vision of White Pine Charter School.
