

CK—Administrative Consultants

Professional consultants from the Idaho School Boards Association, the Idaho Public Education Department, universities, and colleges, as well as other resource persons, may be used when such consultation services will be helpful in the improvement of the instructional program or operation of the school. All consultants shall be approved by the Administrator prior to the invitation and arrangement for such visitation.