

GCRC—Staff Consulting Activities

In accord with Policy GCR, “Nonschool Employment of Professional Staff,” staff members may serve as consultants for outside individuals and organizations, provided that their responsibilities to positions in the School are adequately met. Each staff member is expected to restrict outside work to non-contract hours. Further, the employee shall in no way communicate that he/she represents the School or the Board in either an informal or formal manner.