

GCS—Certified Staff’s Research and Publishing

Staff members are encouraged to contribute professional articles and news items to local, state, and national agencies and publications.

Any staff member, who submits professional materials for publication in which the School is mentioned, will submit all such material to the Administrator prior to release for publication, including materials developed on the employee's own time. The Administrator shall review the material for timeliness and appropriateness.