

IGD—Curriculum Adoption

All new programs and courses of study will be subject to Administrator approval, as will elimination of programs and courses and extensive alteration in their content. Curricular proposals from the professional staff may be presented to the Administrator, who will be responsible for reporting to the Board on such matters.