

JGA—Assignment of New Students to Classes and Grade Levels

The school administration, through academic achievement tests and other necessary evaluation measures, shall determine the appropriate grade level and/or credit status of students transferring from home schools or private schools that have not been accredited by the Idaho State Department of Education. Such students must demonstrate proficiency in the School-adopted content standards at their appropriate placement level.