

JICD—Student Conduct in School

Principles of Conduct

The Board endorses the following principles of student conduct:

- Respect for law and those given authority to administer it shall be expected of all students. This included conformity to school rules as well as to general provisions of the law regarding minors.
- Respect for the rights of others, consideration of their privileges, and cooperative citizenship shall be expected of all members of the school community.
- Respect for the real and personal property, pride in one's work, and exemplary personal standards of courtesy, decency, honesty, and wholesome attitudes shall be maintained.
- Respect for individual worth is the obligation of the school. Diligence and a desire to benefit from the opportunity is the obligation of the student.

The Board expects student conduct to contribute to a productive learning climate. Individual rights are to be honored and protected in all instances; however, the rights of one individual shall not take precedence over those of another individual or of the group itself, and all students shall have equal rights and equal responsibilities in the classroom or at any school-sponsored activity.
