

JJB—Student Social Events

The Board maintains that student social events are an extension of the school and, as such, are governed by the same rules and regulations as exist during the school day.

Further, school social events are a privilege and students, because of their behavior, may be denied the opportunity to participate.