

JP—Student Donations and Gifts

Donations

Student organizations may be permitted to engage in raising funds for humanitarian agencies from within the membership of the organizations if the fund-raising is under full control of the school and if:

1. the project has the approval of the Administrator;
2. the student members are made aware of the voluntary nature of their participation; and,
3. no pressure is exerted on the student member for participation.

Gifts

School patrons should refrain from giving a school employee a pecuniary benefit greater than fifty ($50.00) dollars as defined in Idaho Code §18-1359(b)
