

KCD—Public Gifts and Donations to the School

The Board has the authority to accept gifts and donations as may be made to the School.

The Board reserves the right to refuse to accept any gift that does not contribute toward the achievement of the goals of this School and the ownership of which would tend to adversely affect the School.

Any gift accepted by the Board shall become the property of the School, may not be returned without the approval of the Board, and is subject to the same controls and regulations as are other properties of the School. The Board shall be responsible for the maintenance of any gift it accepts, unless otherwise stipulated.

The Board will make every effort to honor the intent of the donor in its use of the gift, but reserves the right to utilize any gift it accepts in the best interest of the educational program of the School.

In no case shall acceptance of a gift be considered to be an endorsement by the Board of a commercial product or business enterprise or institution of learning.

The Administrator shall:

- Encourage individuals and organizations considering contributions to the schools to consult with the Administrator on the appropriateness of any such gifts.
- Report to the Board all gifts that have been offered to the School, for their review and action.
- Acknowledge the receipt and value of any gift accepted by the School, and prepare fitting means, as appropriate, for recognizing or memorializing gifts to the School.

Gifts shall be recorded in appropriate inventory listing(s) and property records.
