

KDC—School-Sponsored Information Media

Publications issued by and in the name this School shall reflect a high quality of editorial content and format. The exercise of appropriate economy in materials and production is expected as long as the main purpose is not jeopardized.

Articles circulated or submitted for publication by School employees in which the School, or employees of the School, are mentioned directly or indirectly must be cleared by the Administrator.