

LD—Relations with Colleges and Universities

In order for staff members and students to benefit from the resources provided by colleges and universities, the Administrator shall seek out and utilize the services of college and university faculty members or programs when they are compatible with the needs of the School.

Research involving student time shall be of benefit to the School.